

Dear Musician,

Thank you very much for showing interest in participating in the unique workshop "Make your own traditional wildwood flute" given by musician, composer and flute maker Nigel Shaw from Dartmoor, England. It will take place on Saturday 22nd of October 2016 from 9.00 till 21.00 o'clock. The workshop will take place in Rijnsaterwoude and be hosted by Dennis van Vondelen, a Dutch bass player. The spoken language will be English, but of course Dennis will be happy to translate when needed.

Nigel will teach the craft making to a small group to ensure that there will be time to create mindfully.

We are very proud to be able to offer this workshop for a sharp price as the support and organization is done voluntarily. At the end of the day you will bring home your new flute!

To book please transfer the amount of €197,50 to NL75ABNA0415935792 on the name BS Jorgensen. Please mention "flute workshop" when making the payment.

As we feel it's important to ensure that Nigel can make his travel arrangements on time, we do not refund any booking unless there is another participant, who can take your place. In such case, we will charge 25% of the total amount as an administration fee.

Should you need more information on the flutes and Nigel's music, please visit seventhwavemusic.co.uk

For further practical questions concerning the workshop please email spirilicious@gmail.com or call Birgitte van Vondelen-Jørgensen on 06-26706616

Mind that dinner is included - a vegetarian option will be available. We kindly ask to bring your own lunch and in case you have special dietary needs for dinner, please also bring your own. Coffee, tea and snacks will be provided for.

One week prior to the workshop we will contact you with directions concerning address and other practicalities.

Warm flute greetings on behalf of the whole Spirilicious team,
Birgitte van Vondelen-Jørgensen & Marguerite Schouten-Richter
